Villa on the west coast with unbeatable sea & sunset views to buy

Only a few minutes away from some of the most beautiful sandy beaches of the west coast of the island with the most amazing sunset views.

Between Cala Gracio, Cala Gracioneta and Punta Galera, these beautiful beaches which stand out because of the fine sands bathed by turquoise water which give the visitors the impression that they are in a crystal clear pool surrounded by stunning natural scenery.

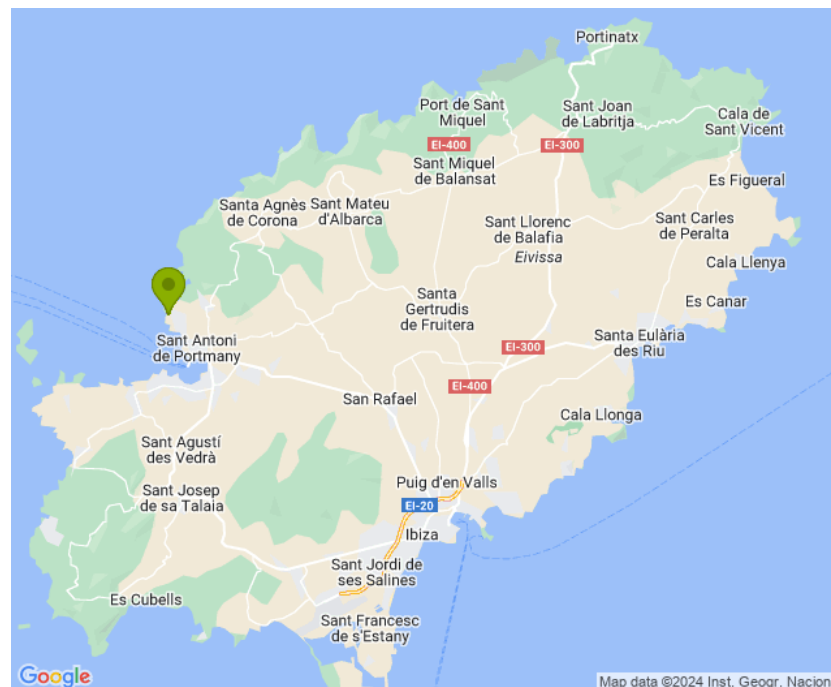

At the ground floor of the property, there is one bedroom, an open lounge, a dining room and modern designed kitchen with amazing views.

There is another outdoor lounge & dining area underneath the porch, this is the perfect place for making the most of sunny days. There is an outdoor staircase that leads to the swimming pool level where there are also two bedrooms and a bathroom - this would be ideal for guests because of privacy and thanks to the independent entrance.

Apart from all this the house also features another bedroom and bathroom upstairs, which is accessed via an external staircase - this also leads up to the roof, from where you can enjoy absolutely spectacular views.

A charming property in a wonderful location to fall in love with!

Note: This property is not suitable for families with small children due to the number of steps.
